

CALL MONEY REACHES 15%.

Secretary Shaw Visits Street—
Thinks Situation Not Dangerous.

Call money advanced to 15 per cent yesterday afternoon, the highest level it has touched since April 1, 1905, and time funds also were strong. There was extensive selling of loans, which compelled heavy selling of stocks, and the stock market closed weak, with net losses in practically all of the issues in which trading had taken place. Heading was once more an exception to the general tendency, being bid up nearly 4 points by the pool, and closing 1½ points above Wednesday, at 14½.

Secretary Shaw, of the Treasury Department, who had come over from Washington to attend the reception held last night in honor of General Horace Porter at the Union League Club, spent part of the day in the financial district. He called at the Sub-Treasury and the Custom House, and also conferred with the presidents of two or three of the leading national banks. It is understood on the highest authority that Secretary Shaw does not consider the present stringency in the money market to be of such seriousness, or to have resulted from such circumstances as to make it advisable for him to relieve the situation by turning over government money to the depository banks.

Further large shipments of currency were made to the West yesterday, and all indications pointed toward a poor bank statement to-morrow. An officer of a prominent Wall Street bank said yesterday:

There is nothing alarming in the prevailing high rates for money. Dear money is quite natural at this time of the year, and is due largely to the activity of business, which requires a greater volume of currency to facilitate its movement. Conditions will be better within the next two or three weeks. The Chicago banks are beginning to receive money from the interior, but in very small volume. However, shipments will gradually reach larger proportions as we approach the new year. Grain movements in Chicago are also more active, which will help the situation. We can expect no assistance from Europe, and this is another factor that has worked for a higher money level. The coming bank statement may show that the surplus of the Associated Banks is below the reserve limit, but this should cause no alarm. It has happened before, and the surplus is created just for what is now happening in the money market. The situation does not call for any assistance on the part of the Treasury. A heavy decrease in loans this week would cause no surprise in banking circles.

THE BEEF TRUST PLEA.

Its Validity Will Come Up Before
Federal Court.

Washington, Nov. 9.—United States Attorney Morrison, of Chicago; Special Assistant Attorney General Pagnin, of the Department of Justice, and Commissioner of Corporations Garfield, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, were in conference with Attorney General Moody today on the subject of the plea set up by the alleged beef trust to the effect that immunity from punishment was granted to it by Mr. Garfield in course of his investigation of the alleged trust some months ago.

The question as to whether the plea set forth by the attorneys for the packers should be sustained or not is a question for the United States Court. The Department of Justice will appear before the court and oppose the plea as soon as an opportunity is given.

UNITARIANS IN CONFERENCE.

Listen to Addresses by the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot and Professor Felix Adler.

The twenty-first annual meeting of the Unitarian Conference of the Middle States and Canada reconvened at the Lenox Avenue Unitarian Church, 121st-st. and Lenox-ave., yesterday morning. The sessions will continue until Friday noon.

At the morning session, after reports from the secretary and treasurer, the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot, addressed the conference on "The Challenge of Our Opportunities." Dr. Eliot spoke entirely of the opportunities offered workers in the Unitarian Church.

In the afternoon, after a brief business meeting, Adelbert Root, of Buffalo, was re-elected president of the conference. The principal address of the day was delivered by Professor Felix Adler, the well known writer and speaker on social topics. Dr. Adler spoke on "The Truth About Present Social Conditions." He dealt entirely with the Church and its effect on the masses, the present low ebb of its influence with the working classes, and how it could and ought to be improved. The evening was taken up with the layman's point of view. President Root, of Buffalo, and Professor Franklin W. Hooper, of Brooklyn, were the principal speakers.

TROUBLE OVER DR. IRVINE

Ex-Rector's Ordination May Cause
Split Between Churches.

As anticipated by persons acquainted with the circumstances involved in the ordination last Sunday in this city of the Rev. Dr. Ingram N. W. Irvine, the untroubled Protestant Episcopal minister, as a priest of the Russian Orthodox Catholic Church, the admission of the former rector into the Holy Eastern Church has aroused many protests from the Episcopal clergy, and it threatens to sever the cordial relations existing between the two churches. The most important of these protests is made by the Rev. Dr. Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States.

"The Churchman," in its current issue, prints a letter written by Bishop Tuttle, to Archbishop Tikhon of the Russian Church, who presided at the ordination ceremonies at St. Nicholas's Cathedral, in East 78th-st., in which he comments on the proceedings. He quotes Canon 5 of the Canons of the Council of Nicea, which says that "persons who have been cast out by one bishop are not to be readmitted by another." The application, says Bishop Tuttle, may be as reasonably made to a clergyman who has been deposed as to one excommunicated.

Bishop Tuttle goes on to say that the ordination of Dr. Irvine, in his opinion, would be a repudiation of the validity of the orders of the Church, which are regarded as infallible, and might be a serious interruption of the amity, harmony and unity now existing between the two churches. "The Churchman," commenting editorially on the promise of Dr. Irvine to promote the unification of the two churches, says: "Certainly he and Archbishop Tikhon have chosen a strange way to promote this cause."

SECRETARY ROOT AND SATURNALIA.

He Declines to Reconsider His Former Decision.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Secretary Root has declined to reconsider his decision adverse to placing on exhibition in the Metropolitan Museum in New York the statue group Saturnalia. He has received from Signor Biondi, the sculptor, now in Rome, an earnest appeal to act as umpire in another decision upon the artistic and moral merits of the group, the sculptor taking the ground that as Mr. Root is no longer legal adviser of the Museum, in which capacity he resisted the artist's efforts to have his statue exhibited, he is now in a position to pass without bias upon its merits. The Secretary has been obliged, however, to inform Signor Biondi that he remains a trustee of the Museum, and cannot see his way clear to accept this invitation to further consider the case.
